DYNAMITE AT HOMESTEAD.

Non-union Workers in the Great Iron Works in Daily Terror for Their Lives.

Locked Out Workmen Suspected of a Design to Wreck the Mills With Dynamite.

Blaine Will Work Republican—An Indian Ruffian Lynched in Arizona.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 15.—A dynamite scare has seized the non-union men at Homestead, and three locked-out men, named Hogan, Clement and Gibson, found about the millyard this evening were arrested. Superintendent Porter received word last night that several men were within the mill enclosure with dynamite to wreck the machinery of the big armour-plate mill. He paid no attention to the rumor until one of the company's detectives told him he had obtained information from a drunken striker. The report spread through the mills and made the non-union men feel shaky. Search was made high and low, but nothing of the supposed dynamiters was found. Chief Douty, when standing on the river bank near the mill fence this morning saw three men loitering about the mouth of the great sewer leading to the mill. He obtained assistance and arrested them. They will be charged with trespass until the dynamite story has been investigated. The detectives say some strangers bought 100 pounds of dynamite at a Pittsburg powder-house two weeks ago. They tried to trace it, and think it was sent to Homestead.

Peter Jackson's Exploit.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—According to a letter received in this city to-day from England by a prominent sporting man, Peter Jackson engaged in a fistic encounter recently, and demonstrated that, besides being a fighter, he is also a gentleman. It appears that Peter was taking refreshments in a small hotel near Doncaster. Toughs began to indulge in most violent language to a barmaid who was serving them with drinks. After keeping up this sort of thing for a while, Peter thought it time to act, and with a well-merited reproof he told them to keep quiet and behave themselves. This only added fuel to the fire. One of the toughs approached the colored fighter and threatened to thrash him, while another took aim and hurled a tumbler at Peter, striking him in the forehead. While partly stunned he made a rush at the toughs and struck out with his right and left. He soon had four of the belligerents stretched senseless on the floor. One was so badly hurt that he had to be conveyed in an ambulance to a hospital. The barmaid for whom Peter acted as champion was profuse in her thanks to the colored fighter. A day or two afterwards several sporting men presented Jackson with a handsome gold watch and chain in recognition of his valiant action.

Promptly Lynched.

ASHFORD, Ariz., Oct. 15.—Lizzie Nicholes, eight years old, while on horseback after stray animals on Thursday, was dragged from her horse by an Indian and nearly choked to death besides being kicked and badly bruised. Her garments were nearly torn off, but she escaped from her captor who failed to accomplish his purpose. The mother alarmed by her absence started after the girl and found her in a fainting condition. A posse of residents mounted and hunted for the Indian, but many had to return to town from want of water. The Indian returned at 8 a. m., barefooted, to regain his blankets. He was seen and captured and taken to a saloon for safe keeping. A crowd collected, threatening to lynch him but were restrained. Between 1 and 2 a.m. they took him, and amid his groans and protests in broken English; hanged him to a telegraph pole. He was riddled with bullets and the body left hanging until about 10 a.m. The child is still suffering from the shock to her system and is in a critical state.

Blaine Probabilities.

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., Oct. 15.—James L. Clarkson, Cornelius N. Bliss, Joseph H. Manley, Thomas H. Carter and Lewis N. McGowan, who dined with Mr. Blaine at Whitelaw Reid's farm house last night, left for New York at 9 this morning. They were jubilant over the result of the conference with Mr. Blaine, and while declining to say whether or not he would take the stump, declared that his active interest in the campaign would be a great advantage to the Republicans. It is said from this that Mr. Blaine will do everything for the Republican ticket that his physical condition will permit.

War Indemnity Asked.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 14.—The press of the state is agitating the question of the Federal Government refunding to the citizens of Baton Rouge the cost of their homes which were burned during the war. The point is being made that, since an unlawful direct tax has been ordered refunded by the National Government, the citizens should keep the bail rolling and demand compensation to the Baton Rouge people. In 1862 the houses were burned by federal authorities and certificates of the valuation of the property issued by the officers in command of the district.

Weak and Sleeps Much.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Harrison's condition shows no decided change. She is weaker and sleeps most of the time; bad symptoms.

Worthy of a Halter.

HAZELTON, Pa., Oct. 15.—An attempt was made to wreck the Lehigh Valley passenger train on Wednesday at Pinkash Junction. The train was running at a high rate of speed when, on approaching the junction, the engineer saw a man standing by the switch deliberately throw the lever over. The engineer immediately applied the air brakes and reversed the engine, stopping just as the driving wheel passed over the switch joint. The miscreant who turned the switch ran off into the woods. The magistrate remanded him until Thursday.

Snow Five Feet on Level.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 15.—Reports from the country west and north of here show that the storm which has been raging for the last two days is the severest known for the Union Pacific Railway. The storm was continuous from Cheyenne to Ogden, a distance of 500 miles. Telegraphic communication was almost entirely cut off and all railroads blocked with snow, which is 20 feet deep in the cuts. The snow at Laramie, Wyo., is five feet deep on the level. Thousands of horses and cattle have perished.

A TRUE SON OF ERIN.

Romantic and Adventurous Career of George A. Kelly, the Irish Journalist.

Special Correspondent Through the Crimean War for a London Newspaper.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 15.—The funeral of the late George A. Kelly took place this morning from the Roman Catholic church. It was very largely attended by most of the principal men in the city. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Sapperton.

Geo. A. Kelly was born at Castle Kelly, near Ballinasloe, County Galway, Ireland, about 70 years ago. He began his business career as agent for Lord Claremorris, whose extensive estates are situated in County Galway. From his native county he went to the city of Dublin and commenced life as a journalist on one of the leading papers as a reporter. He next went to London and secured a position as parliamentary reporter for the DailyNews, from which he rose to the editorial chair. He was a special correspondent during the Crimean war and did splendid work for his paper. He was a close spectator, among other scenes, of the Alma, Inkerman, the bloody field of Balaclava, the trenches in front of and the fall of Sebastopol. About the year 1860 he emigrated to British Columbia, soon being engaged on the staff of the Colonist, Victoria. He returned to Ireland a year or two afterwards on a visit, but instead of coming straight back remained in San Francisco, where he still followed his chosen profession. In San Francisco he sojourned three years, then came back to live under the old flag. Having a brother in the Kootenay country, who is the present Government agent, he went there in 1875, contested that district for a seat in the Provincial House. Mr. Kelly was defeated by a majority of one; Mr. Galbraith being returned as member. His next vocation was that of a tutor for three years at St. Joseph's college, Williams lake, Cariboo. After that period he returned to newspaper work, being city editor of the Mainland Guardian, New Westminster, till the paper suspended publication in 1889.

The second engineer on the ferry steamer Surrey has been discharged, as, through him the accident occurred to the ferry. The city has been unfortunate in second engineers; two accidents having happened through their carelessness within three months.

Promoted Salvationists.

OAKLAND, Cal. Oct. 15. — To-day, Sunday and Monday, the Salvation Army of Oakland will give their farewell to Major and Mrs. Kyle, who leave shortly for the east. Major Kyle has for some time been in charge of the Pacific coast division of the Salvation Army, and now, pursuant to orders from General Booth, he leaves to assume a like position on the Atlantic coast.

Ready to Receive Them.

COFFEYVILLE, Kas., Oct. 15.—The citizens of this town were under arms all night in expectation of a raid from the Dalton gang, but the desperadoes did not appear. There is a suspicion of a hoax in connection with the threatening letters and telegrams received, and investigations are to be made.

Nickel Deposits Discovered.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 15. — Word comes from the northern part of this district that an extensive and valuable discovery has been made of nickel ore. The vein of nickel is said to be from eight to ten feet wide and of considerable depth, and to assay an average of 9 per cent nickel.

Chinese Line Jumpers Caught.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 15.—Twelve Chinamen who were being smuggled into this country concealed among the cargo of the canal boat Alphonz Gravel, Captain Hammond, were captured at Rouse's Point yesterday morning by customs officer E. C. Vankirk. They will be taken to Plattsburg for trial.

Release of a Noted Boodler.

SING SING, N.Y., Oct. 15.—Ex-Alderman Henry W. Jachene, one of the famous "boodle ring," was liberated from the states prison this morning. He declined to talk about his future plans, and dodged 20 reporters who came up from New York to interview him.

A Bankrupt Publisher.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—George H. Bartlett, proprietor of an illustrated weekly publication, filed a petition of insolvency to-day. The liabilities are $7800. No assets.

A few sample lines of fine Swiss curtains at a bargain at Weiler Bros.

SHAMROCKS WIN THE DAY.

In Presence of an Immense Throng the Capitals and Shamrocks Strive to Win.

By the Narrowest of Majorities Victory Perches on the Shamrocks' Banner.

The Montreal Team Are Now the Proud Champions of the World.

MONTREAL, Oct. 15.—There was a monster crowd at the great Shamrock-Ottawa lacrosse match to-day. Trains from every quarter brought thousands of visitors for hundreds of miles distant. Never before has such an immense multitude witnessed an athletic event in America. The cheering was terrific when the Shamrocks won the deciding game. The victors and vanquished will be entertained at a gorgeous banquet this evening at which all the leading men of the Dominion will be present and deliver speeches. The following is the order of the match by games: First game won by the Capitals in eight minutes; second game won by the Shamrocks in five minutes; third game, Capitals, 22 minutes; fourth game, Shamrocks, 16 minutes; fifth game, Shamrocks, 18 minutes; time up in sixth game. Shamrocks won 3 to 2.

A Canadian Sugar Trust.

MONTRAL, Oct. 15.—Canadian sugar refiners are about to enter a combination on the lines of the New York sugar trust. The trust will fix all prices, say at 5 cents for October, 4¾ cents for November, 4 7-8 cents for December, etc. The traders dealing with the trust may sell at any prices they please. The trust's price is supposed to be the standard. When traders go back to the refiners to purchase their sugar they will be asked, "Did you sell any time below standard price?" If they did not they make an affidavit to that effect and the trust grants them a rebate on the price, of ⅛ of a cent a pound. This is supposed to be their profit as retailers of sugar, should they sell below the figures of the trust, do so at their own risk, and get no rebate.

'Frisco to Central America.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—It is currently reported that the British steamer Grandholm, now running between here and Tacoma, will be, about November 1st, put on the run between here and Central American ports by a firm in this city. A newly incorporated firm is also about to charter a steamer to handle Central American freights. This enterprise is in opposition to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

Inundations in England.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The storm which was general throughout England last night continues in the northern districts to-day and is especially severe in Yorkshire, where the rivers have overflowed, and miles of country have been inundated.

Extradition Proceedings.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The French anarchist Francois, who was arrested yesterday, was arraigned to-day in police court in the proceedings taken to secure his extradition to France on a charge of murder. Francois protested his innocence, but the magistrate remanded him till Thursday.

The Monserrat's Blackbirding Trip.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 25.—The schooner Equator, Captain Wilson, has arrived from the Gilbert Islands. The Equator was at the islands when the Monserrat was on her alleged "blackbirding" trip, and also when the islands were annexed by the British. It seems from the statements of Captain Wilson, that the annexation was brought about by the operations of the alleged slaver. The British men-of-war did all in their power to prevent slavery, and it now seems as if the people are safe to return to their island homes, as they are now British subjects. Efforts were made to get the case against the Montserrat brought on at once, but after the islands were annexed to Great Britain that vessel complied with all requirements of the law. She was also made to comply with the British law of passengers and tonnage, and could not take more than half as many blacks as she intended.

Murdered by Chinamen.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 15.—There is considerable excitement among the Spanish population over the murder of young Quixado, who was stabbed to death last night in an alley in Chinatown by an unknown Celestial. The father says if the murderer is not captured he will visit Chinatown with his friends in a body and demand the surrender of the fiend. This means that there will probably be trouble in this quarter of the city unless the heathen is given up to the authorities. At 11 last night Ah Chung, one of the three Chinamen who found the boy, was arrested and taken to the central station. About 1 this morning Ah Him, another of them, was arrested and locked up.

No Such Intention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—W. C. Humstone, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph company, declares that there is no foundation for the report that his company is about to absorb the Postal Telegraph system and does not deem such an amalgamation possible.

UNION NEWS.

The Roburite Powder Company Resume Operations—Improving Mining Facilities.

UNION, Oct. 14.—The Odd Fellows of Union will have an anniversary supper on the 17th inst., at the Union Hotel, and a good time is expected.

The Roburite Powder Company, of Victoria, whose works are in Union, have again commenced the manufacture of Roburite after being closed down for some time. Mr. Howard, the manager of the works, has gone to England. Mr. J. Walker takes his place.

Mr. Robert Bryden, of Wellington, is up on business in connection with the mines. The company is getting the mine in better conditon for a larger output, and when the mines do reopen they can get out more coal with less expense than formerly. Prospects are getting brighter, but it has not yet been decided when the mine will reopen.

Dominico Taraniello, who is accused of murdering John Cavalera at Northfield, is well-known here, having worked in the mines for some time.

Mrs. Keith, of Nanaimo, is the guest of Mrs. Davis, Union Hotel.

Mrs. R Grant has returned after a six weeks' visit to Victoria.

A postoffice is being built here. It will be completed next week. It is a handsome building and does credit to the contractor, Mr. Grant.

THOMPSON WILL BE PREMIER.

The Catholic Leader Will be Offset by an Extreme Protestant.

OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—The result of the recent ministerial conference became known this evening. When Sir John Abbott returns from England he will resign the premiership in favor of Sir John Thompson, Minister of Justice, a Roman Catholic. To offset this W. R. Meredith, leader of the Conservative opposition in the Ontario Legislature, and one of the extreme Protestant wing of the party, will be taken into the cabinet as Minister of Justice, which portfolio will be vacated by Sir John Thompson when he becomes premier. The other cabinet change to be made on the premier's return includes the resignation of the Hon. Mr. Dewdney, Minister of the Interior, who will become lieutenant-governor of British Columbia. His place in the cabinet will be filled by T. M. Daly, member for Selkirk. The Manitoba school question will be settled by the Dominion Government diverting a portion of the public lands to the province to be set aside for school purposes for the support of separate schools. This will be the extent of the relief granted those who suffer through the passage of the new act disestablishing separate schools in Manitoba. The school question was the one which kept Thompson out of office, but a settlement on these lines will relieve him of further disability.

NANAIMO NOTES.

Another Constable Wanted—The Late Stabbing Affray—To be Tried.

NANAIMO, Oct. 15.—It is the general opinion of the residents of Nanaimo and district that it is about time the Government should take some steps to provide a lock-up at Northfield, and also put a constable there permanently. The district is very poorly provided in this respect, there being only two provincial police constables between Nanaimo and Wellington. Constable Stephenson is detailed for Northfield and Wellington, and between the two camps there is a distance of about two and a half miles, so that it is utterly impossible for one man to attend to the two places at one time.

"Russian Joe" is the name of the individual who was stabbed on Thursday night. The affray took place in Horth's saloon, not Wall's, as previously reported. Oscar Katl'a is the name of his assailant, and he was brought before Magistrate Planta and remanded till Tuesday next. Carey Jones, colored, was committed to take his trial at the next assize for the murder of Harry Rose on Aug. 16th at Wellington. The prisoner made the following statement to Constable Stephenson after being cautioned: Is he (meaning Rose) dead? He was informed in the affirmative, and contiued: "I never thought it would have killed him, or I would have killed myself. I must have cut him pretty hot, but I never thought he would die. I don't see how I done it. I did not intend to do it." The prisoner then asked to have his cabin locked after, as he had some good clothing to dispose of if he were sentenced to be hanged.

The city Licensing Court sat yesterday, but only one application for a new license was made, and as the city clerk gave evidence that the house was not sufficiently convenient in case of fire, the Bench refused to grant the application. The temperance party think that sufficient licenses have already been granted.

Jealousy Scores Again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Peter Wagner, 930 Flushing Ave., Brooklyn, shot his wife Lena, in the neck this morning, then rushed into another room and discharged the revolver against his own head. The bullet flattened out to the size of a dollar and dropped to the floor. Wagner was arrested. Mrs. Wagner will recover if blood poisoning does not supervene. Jealousy is assigned as the cause for the fusilade.

Tennyson's Last Days

It is sad enough to contemplate fallen greatness in any form, but the decline of a great intellect is perhaps the saddest, says an English correspondent writing of Tennyson's advancing decay. It may be accepted that the hour of intellectual labor is over for Lord Tennyson: It is now his turn to lie still, and be taken care of like a child. When the sun shines he is carried out and laid in a bright spot upon a carpet enveloped in rugs and shawls. Here he sleeps and reads. The object of all his interest is the heir, his baby grandson. Where this small great personage is concerned nothing can be done without consulting him. He must inspect and choose feeding bottles and hoods, and superintend all his daughter-in-law's maternal cares. Lord Tennyson, in fact, seems to have reached a time of life when it is relief to be taken out of oneself, and when placid, unstriving meditation and simple family interests are the limits of possibility as they are the alleviators of pain. It is sad, but inevitable.

CANADIAN NOTES.

News by Mail and Wire From All Parts of the Dominion.

Parliament will meet about January 20th.

The liquor traffic commission opens in Winnipeg on October 26.

The steamship companies have reduced the freight rates on hay from Montreal to England to a very low figure.

Harry Phair, the oldest citizen of London, engaged one of three strange toughs in an encounter and was shot, probably fatally.

Borings for the Prince Edward Island tunnel have been suspended for the season. The submarine borings have been completed for a distance of four miles.

An unsuccessful attempt to wreck an Intercolonial express to St. John was made near Salisbury. Henry Campbell is under arrest on suspicion of being the perpetrator.

Word has been received at Toronto of a decided improvement in the health of Hon. G. W. Ross, who left several weeks ago on a trip to Europe. Mr. Ross is in the south of France.

The Ontario Government sold at auction in Toronto on Thursday 627 square miles of timber limits in the Nipissing, Algoma and Thunder Bay districts, principally pine, which realized some $2,308,475.

While W. S. Watson, with a party of ladies, was driving near Stratford, his horse ran away, upsetting the carriage and throwing the occupants out. Miss Downie and Miss Fennell, of Berlin, were seriously injured.

The nomination of candidates for the provincial general elections in New Brunswick took place to-day, and a lively contest is expected. Affairs are still very much mixed in the counties, and will have to be straightened out very quickly.

At Solsgirth, Manitoba, two boys of Mr. Petche, aged six and seven respectively, were quarrelling, when the eldest picked up his father's loaded shotgun and discharged the contents into his brother's shoulder. The lad will not recover.

Prairie fires have done immense damage in the neighborhood of Calgary during the last few days, devastating the country from Bow River to Red Deer in the North and from Dog Pond in the West to the Cauderoy. Thousands of tons of hay and many buildings were destroyed.

A dispatch from Montreal says that in addition to the retirement of Superintendent Stiff, and the replacing of the Southern division of the Grand Trunk under the control of Superintendent Stephenson, the authorities have decided to remove Edmund A. Wragge, the company's local superintendent at Toronto, to Montreal, where he will devote his time to another branch of the service.

On Thursday E. C. Van Kirk, special customs inspector at Rouse's Point, New York, took charge of the Canadian barge A. Gravel, Captain Amos Hamle, from Sorel, bound to Albany, N.Y.; in the hold of which were discovered a full dozen of Chinaman, all of whom, together with the captain of the barge, were taken into custody. The suspicion of the officers appears to have been aroused a few weeks since, when L. H. Twohey, deputy collector in charge of the Bonaventure depot in Montreal, observed a great number of Chinamen taking the cars for St. Johns and different points on the road near the Richelieu river. He at once notified Van Kirk and the two went to work with the result described. It is stated that three Canadians were in the deal, and they were to receive $50 a head for every Celestial landed in the United States.

A Business Combine.

SEATTLE, Oct. 14.—A number of representative business firms met at the Chamber of Commerce last night and effected a permanent organization of the Seattle branch of the Merchants' Retail Commercial Agency. J. B. MacDougall was elected temporary chairman. J. J. Dolan explained the aims and objects of the agency, which is designed to protect retail merchants from the imposition of persons who secure credit and do not pay their bills. The system is operated by a series of notices sent out, and by every member signing an agreement not to sell to any persons whose names are published on a black list sent out from the main office every 60 days. Each member also agrees to furnish the head office with the name of every person who is delinquent and will not pay. The officers elected were: President, J. B. MacDougall; vice-president, George M. Halloway; secretary, F. W. Baker.

Wreck of the Premier.

TACOMA, Oct. 14.—Capt. E. C. Warner, general manager of the dry dock at Quartermaster, reports the vessel to be in the same condition as on Sunday. Last night, he said, the intention was to start two pumps to ascertain what could be done to pump her out. If this can be done she will be taken to the dry dock at Quartermaster for repairs. These repairs will be permanent, as the class of work required can be done just as well here as at any other place. The collision bulkhead of the Premier was cut through, but there is another about ten feet back that is intact. There appears to be little doubt in Captain Warner's mind that the Premier can be brought to the dry dock.

A Brute.

A disagreeable husband once misquoted to the effect "that a thing of beauty is a (jaw) forever."

A Rigby coat or mantle is a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and an effectual producer of good temper. Ill health and good temper cannot go together, and the most prevalent breeder of ill health is a cold. With the old fashioned and unsightly rubber coat a damp, clammy feeling with attendant chill and cold was almost inevitable. With a Rigby garment it is an impossibility, because Rigby is warm, light, porous, and perfectly waterproof. P.—I—Please Investigate.

Japan Trembled.

GIFU, Japan, Oct. 14.—The scene of the great earthquake last October had a seismical visitation on September 14th, which gave the inabitants a great scare. It was not attended with loss of life, and beyond the cracking of walls and destroying of furniture and crockery, no damage was done. The ground cracked in many places and wells became muddy, the water spurting out, in some instances the wells almost drying up. Yokohama also experienced the earthquake felt at Gifu. The day before the earthquake, Gifu and several other places were visited by a severe storm, which destroyed considerable property and inflicted some damage to crops. At Gifu 50 houses were levelled with the ground and nine persons injured. There have been several tidal waves on the Japanese coast, destroying embankments and flooding towns. At one place thirty houses were carried away.

Somewhat Sickening.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The departure of Rev. Thos. Spurgeon on a voyage to New Zealand to-day, afforded occasion for a remarkable exhibition of hero worship on the part of his admirers on the steamer which bore Spurgeon and his friends to Gravesend. The preacher was overwhelmed with farewells; he finally delivered a short speech of thanks, at the conclusion of which many persons wept and some of the women present were with difficulty restrained from embracing the parson. All the party then gathered in the saloon and Mr. Spurgeon wrote his name in every hymn book as a souvenir. On nearing the steamer which was to convey Mr. Spurgeon to New Zealand, all the hero worshippers on board the tender sang the hymn "God be with you."

The Chins are Wagging.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A special dispatch to the Times from Calcutta says trouble has again broken out with the Chins. A body of Chins ambushed themselves at a point six miles from Fort White, and fired upon the escort of a number of officers, killing seventeen of them. A small force, under command of Capt. Caulfield, made a search for the bodies to bury them. They found that the Chins had destroyed the village, and were lying in ambush only two miles from Fort White. This knowledge prevented another massacre. The British forces advanced carefully, and succeeded in routing the Chins from their hiding place. Reinforcements for the British have been dispatched from Mandalay.

Proved to be a Forgery.

MASSILLON, Ohio, Oct. 14.—F. E. Edwards Snyder has lost his suit against Banker Peter Albright to recover a $14,000 promisory note given, it was alleged, in settlement of a claim growing out of Albright's intimacy with Mrs. Snyder. A jury at Canton to-day pronounced the note a forgery. Leading experts in handwriting and eminent microscopists testified in the case. Snyder's lawyer will ask for a new trial, claiming that improper evidence has been introduced by the defence and that the jury had been tampered with.

Spurgeon Travelling.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Rev. Thomas Spurgeon has sailed for New Zealand. A special steamer, crowded with his friends, conveyed him from London to Gravesend to join the ocean steamer. An illuminated address was presented to him, in replying to which he said that no wish was dearer to his heart than to follow in the footsteps of his father. Mr. Spurgeon will probably stay abroad for some time. According to the compromise reached by the factions in the Tabernacle, he will not be called on to officiate until next June.

Limited to Bare Decency.

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—The post of military attache has been abolished as far as the Russian legation here and the German legation are concerned. This step was taken at the request of the Czar, communicated through his foreign minister. This is regarded here as a fresh evidence of the Czar's determination to limit intercourse between Russia and Germany to the bare decencies of diplomatists.

France in Africa.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—Col. Dodds, commander of the French land force in Dahomey, has sent from Porto Novo a cablegram dated October 14th, saying that on October 10th Sabovi was taken; and on the 12th the enemy's position above Obevmedi. The enemy, the cablegram states, are now entrenched six miles from Cana.

Tommy Atkins in Chancery.

RANGOON, Burmah, Oct. 14.—The British troops are said to be in a critical condition near Tiddin. Two thousand Burmese lay in ambush for them, when the last news was received. Since October 8th nothing has been heard from them.

Its Nutritive Elements.

The nutritive elements of Lactated Food are derived from the three great cereals, wheat, barley and oats. The result is a food which never disappoints, and under which the feeble child or invalid rapidly rallies.

No other food in the world is so well adapted for the young infant who is deprived of breast milk. Its building and strengthening properties are extraordinary; and owing to its peculiar composition, it can be retained on the weakest stomach. Lactated Food is the only artificial food that can be honestly recommended for weak and delicate infants and young children. Mothers, we advise you to try the virtues of one tin of this most excellent food; it is just what your babies require.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A WARNING REPEATED!

A few months ago, we had occasion to call the attention of the people of Canada to the fact that some parties were putting up a preparation which they called Celery Compound.

The individuals who are now doing this work, are building on the reputation and popularity of the wonderful Paine's Celery Compound, which has accomplished more good in the field of disease than any other medicine ever heard of.

Our object at this time, is to warn Canadians, and to assure them that such imitations are worthless and deceptive. These imitations are prepared specially for the unwary and gullible, who are to be found in every section of Canada.

The wise and prudent, when a guaranteed remedy is wanted, will take pains to know that they are getting the genuine Paine's Celery Compound. No Celery Compound is true and genuine unless it bears the name, "PAINE'S"; and each label must have the Stalk of Celery.

A Notable Amusement Event.

What will undoubtedly constitute one of the most notable amusement events of the amusement season will take place at the Opera house this evening, the occasion being the appearance of Manager Charles Frohman's world famous company in the presentation of the reigning comedy favorite, "The Junior Partner." This company is universally conceded to be one of the most brilliant comedy organizations ever gathered together for the presentation of this class of performance, and includes such eminent artists as Mr. Henry Miller, Miss May Irwin, Mrs. McKee Rankin, Miss Emily Baucker, Mr. Hugo Toland, Miss Phyllis Rankin, Mr. Thomas Ryley, Mr. F. B. Stung and others; any one of whom has acquired metropolitan fame throughout America from New York to San Francisco. Manager Charles Frohman's name has become a synonym for unequivocal excellence in all the important theatres of America, as producer and manager of such important plays as "Shunandoah," "Men and Women," "The Lost Paradise," "Thermider," etc., and this being the first appearance of any of his organizations in this city the event should constitute one of the most brilliant occasions that has thus far been recorded in our amusements.

Chinese Ginger.

A botanical authority, writing from Hong Kong, expresses his belief that Chinese ginger is much more succulent than West Indian ginger—so much so that it is impossible to dry the rhizomes sufficiently to render them fit for export in the usual commercial form—or, if it had been otherwise, dried ginger would have been exported from China long ago. So far as he has been able to learn, preserved ginger is made at Canton and Hong Kong only. The Imperial Chinese Customs returns for last year show that in junks alone the quantity of fresh ginger exported from Canton to Hong Kong was over 6000 piculs (a picul is 133 lbs). Preserved ginger is manufactured in Hong Kong to a large extent for export to the United States.

ma26-tf FRANK CAMPBELL.

A Blow to the Marquis de Bolages.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—The Marquis de Bolages has resigned his seat in the Chamber of Deputies. He is a director and heavy stockholder in the Carmaux mines, where the great strike has been in progress for about eight weeks. There is no prospect of a settlement and the workingmen have made it a national issue, so that the laboring population of the whole country shows signs of unrest. Within the last three days an outcry has been raised throughout France against the Marquis de Bolages, and notice has been given of a long series of interpellations in the chamber on the subject of the Carmaux strike. Rather than run the gauntlet of the consequent debate the marquis decided to give up his public life.

SAANICH EXHIBITION.

The Horse Racing on the Second Day—Successful Events.

The second day of the Saanich exhibition brought out a larger attendance of visitors than the opening day. The weather was favorable, but the recent rains had made the race track soft everywhere and very boggy in places. The society owns what will become a very fine half mile course, but it requires levelling down and hardening. This will be done in the next year or two, and with the advent of the Sydney Railway, the directors are hopeful that their race course will be used for at least one meeting of the Jockey Club each year. Horse racing was the principal attraction, and resulted as follows:

Dorothy cup, half-mile race for horses bred and owned in the district. To be won two years in succession. In the first heat Tommy D (McDean) took the lead and maintained it easily to the finish; May (Sluggett) second and Black Ben third. The second heat was a repetition of the first, Tommy D winning the cup, this being his second year's victory.

Mile trotting race—J. Meuner's Dart, Dr. Hall's Canadian Boy, and J. Brown's Mollie Cooper started in this race, and finished in the order named. The second heat was run in the same order.

Mile running race—Frank Campbell's Jim Murphy, Simpson's Domino, and Geiger's Surefoot. Jim Murphy won easily, Domino and Surefoot coming in close together, with Surefoot ahead.

Mile trotting for stallions—Monroe's Storm was an easy winner; Le Basco second.

Mile trotting for famers' horses—McRae's George, Sneeder's Kate, Bowker's Simcoe, McDean's Norah, Stelly's Fanny and Sehl's Nelly got off to a good start, Simcoe taking the lead, followed by Norah and Kate. The trio kept together and came in in the order given.

Mile trotting, free to all—Harry Prentice, Harry H., Simcoe and Major started, and crossed the wire—Harry H. first, Simcoe second and Prentice third.

The quoit match was won by J. Ledingham, Victoria, against five competitors.

The ball and supper in the evening was a fitting finale to the two days fair and sports.

ADVANCE, IRISH-VICTORIANS.

TO THE EDITOR:—In the last issue of your weekly contemporary, mention is made of the fact that the Irish have no society in Victoria. Both the Scotch and the English have societies to perpetuate the memory of their fatherland, and surely Irishmen have an equal right with either of the above to be proud of their country—a country which has produced men the equal of any the world has ever seen, as orators, statesmen, commercial men or military leaders.

It has always been understood that the Irish have as great a love for the land of their birth as any other nation, and it is safe to say the Irish of Victoria are no exception to that rule.

Irishmen or the sons of Irish parents should be eligible to the society. That the society be non-sectarian and non-political should be made a sine quo non.

It would afford me great pleasure to see some Irish-Victorians of long residence, and consequently large acquaintance, take the initiative and bring the matter to a successful issue.

R. E. SPROULE, M.D.

CHINESE LOTTERIES.

TO THE EDITOR: — The extent to which the passion for Chinese lottery gambling is indulged in by Victorians is an astonishment to your correspondent, who never even suspected that the wily heathen gamesters had so many Caucasian "suckers" on their string. Truly "the half hes never been told." Why, not only dozens but hundreds of our fellow townsmen wallow in that vice, and many of them are men of presumed respectability. They suppose that, under the cover of Chinatown darkness, their deeds are done in secret, but their folly shall be made manifest. Verily, "there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, and hid that shall not be made known." The dingy dens where these dupes do most congregate can be found by the police in the rear part of the stores kept by "On Hing & Bros.," and "Pook Long & Co.," at Nos. 40 and 46 respectively, on Fisgard street. There are many minor traps of this character for the foolish scattered throughout Chinatown, but those named are the principal and wealthiest ones. These latter do an extensive business with the "better (?) class of players," and are the highest in favor with the powers that be. Why this phase of immorality is tolerated, yea, protected here, I fail to understand on any other hypothesis than that the gamblers' boasts that a percentage of their fleecings purchases the immunity from prosecution and suppression that they so much deserve, are well founded. Mr. Editor, it is high time for Victoria to divest herself of "border" habits, and to array herself in garments befitting an advanced stage of Christian civilization.

Weekly Budget FROM 42 BROAD STREET

READ! 'TWILL INTEREST YOU.

To sell two Suits of Clothing for every one I've sold before is a task I've set myself to perform this season. It looked almost hopeless, but I rolled up my sleeves and went at it. I'm glad to say that so far I've not only GOT THERE, but am past the mark and almost up to THREE TO ONE. Of course in doing this: FIRST—I had to chop the head off exorbitant prices and at the same time give the very best in the market for the least money. Industry, economy and strict attention to "Biz" were also great factors; but the chief one was the CHOICE SELECTION OF MATERIALS shown, combined with CLOSE PRICES. Such as:

English Serge and Tweed Suitings, $32, $35, $37.
Scotch Cheviots and Bannockburns, $25, $28, $30, $32, $35.
Irish Tweeds and Serges, $28, $30, $33, $36, $39.
Trouserings from $5 up.

I can easily make a reduction of from $1 to $4.50 on above suit quotations were I to use inferior trimmings or poor workmanship. This I've determined not to do. No, No! None of that on my plate, as I've had a hard pull to get my reputation where it stands to-day for HIGH CLASS and CLEAN, HONEST WORK. My order book is beginning to get belly-fat, and as I will not turn out, under any circumstances, slovenly, ill-made or bad-fitting garments, it is necessary for those gentlemen who require a Winter Suit to place their orders now, as I always go for my work in rotation as it comes in.

DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY, at

JOHN McCALLUM'S, The Fashionable Tailor, 42 Broad Street.

A HOTEL FOR WORKINGMEN.

Plans by Which Members of Unions May See the Exposition.

Chicago News.]

American laborers will visit the World's Fair in style. Chicago's largest hotel, soon to be erected at the corner of Fifty-fourth street and Woodlawn avenue, about two blocks south of Jackson Park, will be reserved exclusively for their use. The aim will be to have the prices so moderate that workmen in the humblest circumstances can afford to see the great fair.

The enterprise took shape several months ago, the first intention being to build a large temporary hotel, which could be removed at the close of the fair. The present plans, however, which have been definitely adopted, involve the erection of a solid masonry building eight stories high, and having accommodation for 3000 guests.

The Trades Hotel, for so it is called, will be planned as a huge apartment-house, but during the fair temporary partitions will be constructed in the flats, making 2200 rooms. It will be built in the Italian renaissance style of architecture with a frontage of 187 feet on Fifty-fourth street. While it is aimed to have the furnishing plain and simple, yet the rooms will be neat and comfortable and the guests will have access to all the conveniences of the down town hotels, such as elevators, telephones, electric lights, marble baths and all other modern improvements. The building will cost not far from $450,000. In the basement there will be a restaurant, the prices of which are to be regulated by contract, so that no exorbitant charges can be made.

Excavations will begin on September 15th, and the building is to be ready for occupancy by the middle of April. It is to be located within one block of the cable lines and is three blocks from the Illinois Central station.

The charges for rooms to workmen, it is said, will be most moderate. On the payment of $20 a room is reserved for two weeks at some time during the fair with the understanding that the guest will receive a rebate of $5 if he comes within the time assigned by the management. This plan, the directors think, will prevent undue crowding on any particular occasion.

A novel scheme has been devised for aiding the laborers of the country to be present. The company has issued a large number of twenty-five cent stamps, which will be sold to the workingmen by the secretaries of the various labor organizations, who are to act as the company's agents. When $20 worth of these stamps have been purchased and pasted into a little book provided for that purpose the owner is entitled to a room at the Trades Hotel for two weeks.

Convincing Testimony.

From the Detroit Free Press.]

"I was spending the night in a country town not long ago," said the drummer at the dinner table, "and in the evening, before bedtime, several of the natives collected at the tavern and we sat around on the porch talking. One of the residents was telling me what a fine country they had about them.

"'Why,' he said in all earnestness, 'Jack Binsy, who has a dairy farm ten miles from town, gets a million pounds of butter a week from his cows.'

"'Aw, come off,' I said, with a laugh, 'you can't make me believe any such stump speech as that.'

"'But it's true as preachin,' he insisted.

"I demurred again.

"'Ain't it so, Henry?' he asked, appealingly of an elderly man sitting next to me.

"'Well, I can't say as to a million pounds,' was the cautious reply, 'nor just how much exactly, but I know Jack has three saw mills on his place that he runs entirely with buttermilk.'

"There wasn't any use bucking against evidence of that sort and I never said a word."

A BY-LAW

TO ENABLE the Corporation of the City of Victoria to borrow the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars for the purposes therein set forth.

Whereas it is necessary that the streets and sidewalks should be maintained and bridges improved and constructed, and whereas an insufficient sum of the present year's unexpended revenue is at this time available for such work, it is therefore deemed expedient to raise a sum of money for the above purposes,

And whereas for the purposes aforesaid it is intended to raise by way of loan upon the credit of the city the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

And whereas it will require the sum of $1,289.08 to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of the debt and interest as hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas the amount of the whole rat able property of the said Corporation of the City of Victoria according to the revised assessment roll, for the year 1891, was $17,563,148.

And whereas it will require an annual special rate of 3-40th of a mill in the dollar for the payment of the interest and the creating an equal yearly sinking fund for paying the principal of the said interest debt, according to the Municipal Act, 1892.

And whereas it is intended to reduce the general rate so that the said Special rate shall not increase the total rate of taxation.

Be it therefore enacted by the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

SECTION 1.—It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the Corporation of the City of Victoria to borrow upon the credit of the said Corporation, by way of the debentures hereinafter mentioned, from any person or persons, body or bodies corporate who may be willing to advance the same as a loan, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $25,000.00 currency, or sterling money at the rate of $4.86 2-3rds dollars to the one pound sterling, and to cause all such sums so raised or received to be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Corporation for the purpose and with the object hereinbefore recited.

SECTION 2.—It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of debentures to be made for such sums as may be required, not exceeding, however, the sum of $25,000.00 either in currency or sterling money (at the rate of $4.86 2-3 dollars to the one pound sterling) as may be required, each of the said debentures being of the amount of $1,000 or its sterling equivalent at the rate aforesaid, and all such debentures shall be sealed with the seal of the said Corporation and signed by the Mayor thereof.

SEC. (3).—The said debentures shall be made payable in fifty years from the date hereinafter mentioned for this By-law to take effect, at the office of the Treasurer of the said Corporation in the City Hall, Victoria, and shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest, and the signature of the Mayor or of the Clerk of the Corporation respectively to the coupons may be affixed by printed, stamped or lithographed fac simile.

SECTION 4.—The said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half-yearly at the office of the said Treasurer.

SEC. (5). For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures and the interest to become due thereon, an equal special rate of 3-40ths of a mill in the dollar shall in addition to all other rates be levied and collected in each year upon all rateable property within the City of Victoria during the continuance of the said debentures or any of them.

SECTION 6.—This By-law shall before the final passage thereof receive the assent of the electors of the said Corporation in the manner provided for by the Municipal Act, 1892, and shall take effect on the 14th day of October, 1892.

SECTION 7.—This By-law may be cited as the "Street Loan By-Law, 1892."

Passed the Municipal Council this 28th day of September, 1892.

Received the assent of and confirmed by the Municipal Electors on the 11th day of October, 1892.

Reconsidered, adopted and finally passed the Municipal Council on the 12th day of October, A.D. 1892.

NOTICE.

The above is a true copy of a by-law passed by the Municipal Council of the City of Victoria on the 12th day of October, 1892, and all persons are hereby required to take notice that any one desirous of applying to have such by-law or any part thereof quashed, must make his application for that purpose to the Supreme Court within one month next after the publication of this by-law in the British Columbia Gazette, or he will be too late to be heard in that behalf.

Extension of Broad Street to Cormorant by Local Improvement.

Pursuant to section 15 of By-law 170, a by-law to provide for the assessment of real property benefitted by Local Improvements, the following is hereby published, viz:—

CITY HALL, Victoria, Oct. 5, 1892.

His Worship the Mayor and Board of Aldermen.

GENTLEMEN—We, the undersigned, having received a copy of a resolution passed by the Council on the 28th of September, re Broad street extension across lot 1252, block T, have the honor to submit the report and plan attached, in conformity with sections 1 and 5, by-law 170, intituled "A By-law to provide for the assessment of real property benefitted by local improvements."

The following is a description of the real property which in our opinion will be benefitted by the proposed improvement, viz: A portion of the southerly half of Block N, composed of lots 584, 585; east half of 589, 590, 591, 592; the easterly part of 535, 1252 and 1251, Block T.; 657, 658, 659, 660, and part of 661, of the westerly part of Block U.; also 661, 665, 666, 667 and a part of 668, a portion of the easterly part of Block U, also 159a, 160a, 161a, and 162a, a portion of the westerly part of Block 2; also 423, 424, a portion of the easterly part of Block 2; also 164a 165a, 166a, 167a, 168a, 169a, and 170a, and 414, a portion of the westerly part of Block 13; also 416, 413, 416, and 429, a portion of the easterly part of Block 13

2. We consider the proposed improvement will be permanent.

3. The estimate cost of the proposed extension, including right-of-way, removing and making good buildings, grading and macadamizing street, sidewalks, etc., is $12,000, which amount is assessed against the property, that in our opinion is immediately benefited.

4. The proportion in which the assessment is made on the various portions of the real property benefited, is described in detail in the list hereto attached. The real property benefited is shown in red on the plan attached.

Sub-Section D, showing the Proportion on which the Assessment is to be made on the various Lots benefited.

CITY HEALTH NOTICE

THE ACTING MEDICAL HEALTH OFficer for the City of Victoria recommends that all citizens be required to thoroughly clean up their premises, removing all garbage heaps, decaying vegetables, stable manure, and night soil, and disinfecting all closets and drains as often as necessary, and generally to comply with the provisions of the "Consolidated Health By Law."

By order.

WELLINGTON J. DOWLER, C.M.C.

Victoria, October 1, 1892.

EXTRACTS FROM THE "CONSOLIDATED HEALTH BY-LAW,

ACCUMULATION OF FILTH.

No person shall permit or suffer the accumulation, so as to be a nuisance, of any offal, filth, refuse, stagnant water, or other offensive matter or thing upon his premises, or on any vacant lot belonging to him, or for the owner or lessee of which he is the agent.

No person shall place on any land or in or upon any street, road, or highway, any manure or other refuse matter, or any dirt or filth which is, or is likely to become, a nuisance.

No person shall convey or cause to be conveyed through any street, road, or highway, any night-soil, swill, or other filth or offensive matter dangerous to health, between the hours of six in the morning and twelve in the evening, or at any time except in a proper covered cart or vehicle, so as to prevent slopping or spilling.

Every tenant or occupier of a building shal dispose of all animal and vegetable refuse from such building or on the premises occupied therewith, either by burning the same or by placing it in a proper covered receptacle, the contents of which he shall cause to be removed at least once every week.

No person shall throw into, or leave in or upon, any street, court, square, road, lane, alley, wharf, public enclosure, vacant lot, pond, or body of water, any dead animal, dirt, sawdust, soot, ashes, cinders, shavings, hair, shreds, manure, fish shells, waste water or filth of any kind, or any refuse, animal, or vegetable matter whatever.

DRAINAGE AND PRIVIES.

The owner, lessee, agent, or person having the care of any ground, yard, vacant lot, or other property where stagnant water or other nuisance exists, abutting on any street through which a common sewer shall have been constructed shall cause the same to be effectually drained into such common sewer.

The owner, lessee, agent, or occupier of any building or premises used as a dwelling house, hotel, restaurant, saloon, shop, store, office, factory, wash-house, or otherwise, shall furnish the same with a sufficient drain under ground to carry off all waste or foul water or liquid filth; and no such drain shall empty or discharge into or upon any street, road, or highway, or any open drain thereon, unless in the opinion of the Mayor and Council the same shall not be detrimental to the public health.

All vaults and privies shall be made tight, so that the contents thereof cannot escape therefrom, and as remote from any dwelling, well, or water tank as practicable.

OVERCROWDING.

No person shall let or occupy, or suffer to be occupied, as a dwelling or lodging, any room which—

(a.) Does not contain at all times at least 334 cubic feet of space for each person occupying the same;

(b.) Has not a window made to open in a manner approved by the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector; or

(c.) Has not appurtenant to it the use of a water-closet, earth closet or privy, constructed in accordance with the by-laws and regulations of the City.

And every room in which a person passes the night, or is found between midnight and five o'clock in the forenoon, shall be deemed to be occupied as a dwelling or lodging within the meaning of this section.

SLAUGHTER-HOUSES.

No person shall erect, open, or use any slaughter-house within the limits of the City of Victoria.

EVENTION OF THE SPREAD OF DISEASE.

Whenever a person suffering from smallpox, cholera, or any other disease of a malignant character dangerous to the public health, is an inmate of any hotel or boarding house, the keeper, or one of the keepers, of such hotel or boarding-house shall immediately give notice thereof to the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, who shall thereupon take such steps as may be deemed necessary to prevent the spread of such disease.

Every medical practitioner attending or visiting any person who is suffering from smallpox, cholera, or any other disease of a malignant character dangerous to the public health, shall immediately give notice thereof to the Medical Health Officer or the Sanitary Inspector, who shall thereupon take such steps as may be deemed necessary to prevent the spread of such disease.

Any officer of the Corporation may seize, and under the direction of the Medical Health Officer, the Mayor or the Sanitary Inspector, destroy any tainted or unwholesome meat, poultry, fish, or other article of food exposed or offered for sale.

PENALTY.

Every person guilty of an infraction of any of the provisions of this by-law shall, upon conviction thereof, in a summary manner, before the Police Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the City, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars, and costs if ordered; and if such penalty, and costs if ordered, be not paid immediately or within such period as such Police Magistrate or Justices may appoint, the same may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, or such offender may be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three calendar months, unless such penalty, and costs if ordered, be sooner paid.

MR. DEWDNEY'S APPOINTMENT.

Although the TIMES' Ottawa dispatch yesterday conveyed the first definite announcement that Mr. Dewdney was to be appointed Lieut.-Governor of this province, his appointment has for some time been regarded as practically certain. The statement telegraphed to the Colonist from Ottawa to the effect that members of the Provincial Government had in an interview with Mr. Bowell favored Mr. Dewdney's selection, was evidently intended to pave the way for the announcement that he had been given the office. It may also be noticed that the statements made in that dispatch, coupled with the well known preference for Mr. Mara of at least five out of the six representatives in the House of Commons from this province, gives the situation an aspect which cannot be pleasant to the said representatives. It looks very much as if the Ottawa Government had deliberately gone to work to show the people of this province that it is ready to pay more attention to advice received from members of the Provincial Government than to the urgings of the Commons members. This may be very flattering to Premier Davie and his colleagues, but it cannot be at all comforting for the gentlemen who so faithfully support the Government at Ottawa. If Mr. Dewdney had been appointed without anything being said of the Provincial Ministers' action, this "slap in the face" for our representatives would have been bad enough, but it has been made infinitely more severe by the care taken to inform the public through the Colonist that they are held of little account at Ottawa. The cup of bitterness from which Messrs. Earle and Prior have been forced to drink by their Ottawa friends must now taste worse than ever. This intimation that they are not considered so representative of the people of British Columbia as are the local Ministers, is the most unkind cut of all. Nevertheless, they and their fellow-members from this Province will be found as slavish as ever in the service of the Government at Ottawa, even to the extent of injuring the interests of their constituents.

It appears that Mr. Dewdney's successor is to be Mr. Daly, of Brandon, instead of Mr. Patterson. This change of programme seems to have been made very suddenly, and was probably decided upon as a concession to Northwest feeling. Mr. Daly is comparatively young and inexperienced, he is not nearly so able a man as Mr. Patterson, and will not administer the department as well as the latter would have done. That he is a Manitoba man is probably his chief qualification for the office. When will there be a department which must be regarded as of right belonging to British Columbia?

DEPRESSION IN BRITAIN.

There is only too strong evidence that agricultural and industrial depression is very severe in Great Britain just at present. In the St. James's Gazette recently appeared this paragraph:

As unprecedented number of farm sales will take place in Essex this Michaelmas. There is scarcely in the whole country a village in which a sale of live and dead farm stock is not pending. A great many farmers are leaving the and to save themselves from ruin, and others are bankrupt and forced to sell out. Some of the vacant farms will be taken by a number of Lancashire farmers, who think the condition of agriculture better in Essex than in their own county; but it is expected that there will be a large increase in the number of farms unlet after Michaelmas.

In the London Globe and some of the other papers pictures quite as gloomy are drawn. The Globe speaks thus:—

The Eastern counties are by no means the only part of the kingdom from which the cry of distress proceeds. Maters have so completely gone to the bad in Lancashire that a number of farmers propose to emigrate en masse, and the same dismal story finds repetition in Cumberland, where the agent for the great Netherby estate, speaking with fifty years' experience, declares that he never knew more critical or more anxious times for landlords, agents and tenants than we have now to contend with. In short, wherever the production of cereals is the mainstay of agricultural prosperity, there seems to be every probability that such farms will go begging for tenants, and that wide stretches of land will pass out of cultivation. This means that the food-producing power of the country will be further diminished, rendering it still more dependent on foreign supplies for the victualing of its teeming population.

As to the industrial situation, the following quotation is taken from the London Spectator:

Sir A. Rollit, who presided at the conference of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, which met at Newport, Monmouthshire, in the course of his opening address declared that the prosperity of the past had given way to "a wave of wide and deep depression." Our imports in the past eight months had only increased by three and a half millions, chiefly food stuffs; our exports had decreased by fifteen and a quarter million pounds sterling, or over 9 per cent.; while at the same time the traffic returns of the railways were falling off, and the bankruptcies were increasing. The trade unions, too, reported 5.12 per cent of their members unemployed, as against 2.28 last year. After stating that it would probably have been better to have let the Barings go under, the president dealt with the labor problem, and declared that people should be taught "that there was no true political, much less social economy in the labor of underpaid, ill-fed, or overworked or unhealthy men, women and children; and, above all, by proclaiming, not only from the house, but from the counting-house top, that honesty was still the best policy." The conference, we are glad to see, refused to pass a resolution in favor of commercial union with the colonies on a fair trade basis, though they would not go so far as the free-traders desired.

Of course the existence of depression in Great Britain is seized upon by protectionists as an evidence that free trade does not work well. So far as we are aware, no advocate of free trade has ever been found to contend that his favorite system would always ward off depression in any country. That sort of foolish talk is left to the protectionists, who do not hesitate to affirm that high tariffs and depression cannot exist together. If the British people were to turn around now and tax themselves in order to improve the business situation they might gratify the protectionists but they would hardly benefit themselves. Canadians, at all events, need not expect to find any British commercial body endorsing the doctrine of the "fair traders" any further than did the gathering at Newport.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Single Tax makes some "odious" comparisons. To show the inequalities of the trades' license law it gives the following illustrations:—

W. Casper, cabin in Johnson street, cleaning and repairing, $10.
Geo. R. Jackson, Five Sisters Block, merchant tailor, $10.
Mrs. Vigor, corner Chatham and Douglas streets, dry goods, $10.
David Spencer, Government street, dry goods, $10.
D. Davis, Fort street, shoe maker, $10.
Davie, Vernon & Co. (Colonist) newspapermen, publishers, printers, lithographers, etc., $10.

The trades' license tax is unequal and consequently unjust. It is relatively heavier on the poor man, whose small business is called upon to contribute as much as the rich man's.

The Single Tax, the organ of a radical section of Liberals, publishes the following notice:

In accordance with a resolution passed at the last session of the Victoria Single Tax Club, I hereby call a meeting of said club, for the evening of October 21st, to be held in the Trades and Labor Hall, corner of Government and Pandora streets. Business:

1. Election of officers for the ensuing year.
2. The consideration of a political platform, which will be submitted to the meeting.
3. To take steps towards raising a fund to indemnify candidates who will contest elections on a single tax platform.
4. The question of organizing the four cities of the province for political action.
5. The preparation of a provincial petition at the next session of the local legislature, asking that body to abolish trades licenses.

It is important that all members of the club attend this meeting, and we ask the co-operation of all who favor reform in our present methods of taxation. THOS. HOWELL, President, Victoria Single Tax Club.

The platinum beds of the Ural mountains, according to the Journal de la Chambre de Commerce de Constantinople, "are the only ones in the world in which this metal is found in grains. Platinum is found in Brazil and in the Cordilleras in the hard serpentine rocks, but never in the form of grains. The platinum beds of the Ural mountains are found in various districts. In the north, at Besserski, in the government of Perm, in the district of Khotourski, and in the state properties of Goroblagodatski, where 66 mining concessions have been granted. All the beds of the northern region are situated in the basin of the river Touri, in that of the tributary stream of Taghil, and in other tributaries higher up. On the western declivity of the Ural mountains there is another platinum bed near the river Outka, a tributary of the Tchoussova, and the basins of the higher tributaries of the Outka, near the Ural river. The platinum found in these places is in the form of grains, in sand frequently containing gold. The weight of these grains is from 17 to 21 grams to every 1640 kilograms of sand." The Constantinople journal will probably learn in time, if it has not heard, that platinum is found in grains in British Columbia, and in considerable quantities too.

In reply to a request from the Local Government Board says the "St. James Gazette, the Royal college of Physicians has forwarded a communication, dated the 3rd of September, setting forth instructions to be followed in cases of suspected cholera when the assistance of a doctor cannot be immediately secured, and when the disease has not distinctly declared itself. The document states:

"The college proposes no instructions for the treatment of cholera. Every case of this disease requires separate consideration and management. No stereotyped plan of treatment would prove to be either wise or safe; and, usually before the choleraic nature of an attack could be established medical assistance would have been procured."

Stress is laid on the sanitary precautions with regard to drains, dustbins and water supply, which have already been recommended by the authorities, and it is observed that boiled and filtered rain water is probably the best for use at this time. The dietary should consist daily of three or four simple but nourishing and ample meals, taken at regularly recurring times. It is desirable to avoid soups, tinned or otherwise preserved provisions, raw or stale vegetables, unripe, overripe, or decaying fruits, pastry, cheese, nuts, hard or indigestible things of every kind, malt liquors turning "hard," ginger-beer, strongly ascendant sparkling wines, coarse oatmeal gruel, messes between meals, and either long fasts or two frequent feeding. In the event of diarrhœa setting in milk food should be taken in limited quantities every three hours, and two teaspoonfuls of castor oil should be administered as soon as possible in capsules, hot milk, or any other manner preferred.

PUERILE GOVERNMENTS.

TO THE EDITOR:—It is quite evident that education does not educate our education department at least, or it would not again have fallen into the error of trying to force independent school trustees to do what they consider contrary to the interests of the children under their care. In Victoria it was hard for the Government to find trustees even of its own appointment who would do its work, and no wonder. First, the Superintendent of Education wrote to the Comox school trustees that they had no right to allow J. N. Muir to teach in the public school building because he had no certificate. Then the new inspector, Mr. Burns, in his tour of inspection last Thursday again notified the secretary, and stated that the trustees would have to take the consequences. Is it not sad that an educated gentleman like Mr. Burns should allow himself to be the conduit pipe of such orders? Does he not know that the trustees of Comox are acting within the law, and that the school trustees of Victoria have time and again allowed teachers to teach in the school without certificates and for fees too? If he would look carefully into the school law he would discover that it is the superintendent that is at fault. The school act says distinctly that it is the duty of the superintendent to grant a temporary certificate when the trustees satisfy him that they cannot get a certificated teacher suitable for their school. They have done so; yet he refuses to grant a temporary. History thus repeats itself. Three years ago the Government tried to frighten the Wellington school trustees, but failed, and got this answer:—"August 14th, 1889.—We make our living outside of the Government, and are therefore independent of it or the agents appointed. We are put here by the people and cannot be scared by you, as long as we keep within the law." It tried the same game with the Lulu Island trustees, but failed again, and got this answer:—"Nov. 29th, 1889.—The trustees thought that to see the children of this district get all the advantages possible was a duty paramount to all others expressed or implied by the school act." The Comox school trustees, so far as I am aware, have treated these latest orders of the Government with the silent contempt which they deserve, and are hoping that the superintendent will do his duty and grant a temporary.

The Davie Government must now either take the control of the Comox school out of the hands of the trustees and close it or cause the superintendent to grant a temporary, or be the laughing stock of the country. It remains to be seen on which horn our Premier will take his seat.

You might suggest the following way out of the difficulty: "Whereas the true intent of the Health Act is to place the control of the school buildings under our Government, and whereas a little education is very dangerous; and whereas there is a possibility of the children of Comox getting a little education in one of the aforesaid buildings; therefore the Comox school building is placed under the control of our agent at Comox, and he is authorized to close and fumigate the same, and no court may interfere to prevent him, without the express permission of our Attorney-General, &c., etc." RATEPAYER.

THE LIEUT.-GOVERNORSHIP.

Divers Depositions Respecting the Hon. Edgar Dewdney's New Elevation.

Citizens Express Comparative Indifference as to the Government's Action.

A special dispatch was received from Ottawa and published exclusively by the TIMES yesterday, announcing the appointment of the Hon. Edgar Dewdney to the lieutenant-governorship of British Columbia. Opinions were solicited upon the appointment from prominent men of Victoria. They said:

David Spencer—"It makes little difference to me who got the appointment. I would as soon one as the other of the candidates. I thought that Mr. Mara had got it."

Robert Erskine—"I am not a politician. These are matters I do not care th talk about. To newspaper men above all others. I cannot see how the lieutenant-governorship will affect us."

H. Young—"He may be a good man. I knew him thirty years ago. I suppose he will discharge the functions of his office as efficiently as the other candidates would have done. Let us wait and see and we may then pass an opinion."

E. B. Marvin thought there were better men to be found in the province. However, he did not think that Mr. Dewdney would allow the Davie Government to just as they liked with him. Senator Macdonald was Mr. Marvin's candidate. He thought that the Senator should have been appointed Governor as a reward for what he had done for the province and the Dominion.

Alex. Wilson was certainly opposed to an outsider being appointed Governor. Mr. Dewdney was simply a "plug" to fill up the gap as it best suited the Dominion Government. Senator Macdonald should have been appointed. He is a British Columbian and has been a Senator for a long while.

Mr. Thos. Earle, M. P., did not appear to be particularly pleased with the appointment although he would say nothing against it. "The appointment has been made and all that the people say will not undo it."

Don't you think that there are local men who could fill the position?"

"The position is not a difficult one to fill," answered Mr. Earle, "and I suppose there are many men in the province who think they can fill it. Besides many consider that Mr. Dewdney is a British Columbian, as it was British Columbia that first sent him to Ottawa. The members of the Provincial Government favored Mr. Dewdney and although I do not think what they said had any effect on the Dominion Government, I nevertheless think it was a queer thing for them to request the appointment."

"But Premier Davie tells us that it was only their private opinion."

"It was, nevertheless, very queer for them to do as they did," said Mr. Earle. He had heard a great deal for and against the candidate for the position and he thought many Victorians were in favor of Mr. Dewdney.

Reeve N. C. Schou, of Burnaby municipality: "I do not know Mr. Dewdney very well, but I should think that he ought to make a good man. He has had plenty of experience. I have no personal feeling one way or the other."

Mr. T. B. Hall, president of the Board of Trade had no choice. The appointment was a political one, and he did not think the Government would consult the people about it.

Ald. Styles considered Mr. Dewdney a lucky man to obtain the position.

PERSONAL.

Visitors and Passengers to and from the City and Province.

M. Bate, of Nanaimo, is in the city.

Dr. Davis left for Nanaimo this morning.

M. King returned this morning from Nanaimo.

E. M. Johnson returned from Spokane last evening.

D. M. Eberts left for the Kootenay country this morning.

The Bishop of Caledonia and Mrs. Ridley will leave for the north to-night.

Mrs. Norman Nicholson left for California this morning to spend the winter.

S. H. Harkness, representing Sutcliffe, Baxter & Co., of Seattle, is in the city.

Thomas S. Burnes will leave in a few days on a month's visit to San Francisco.

Miss F. Isaacs, of San Francisco, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. P. J. Davies.

William Gill, inland revenue inspector, came home from the mainland last evening.

Miss Price, Duncans; G. A. Smith, Alberni; C. H. Cunningham, Walla Walla, are staying at the Oriental.

J. M. Alexander and Mrs. Alexander of the Naas, who have been spending a few days in Victoria, will leave for the north this evening.

Manager William Christie, of the C. P. R. telegraph office, went to Port San Juan this morning on the steamer T. W. Carter. He will be absent for a day or so.

Columbus and Columbia.

The above is the title of a Grand Pictorial History of the Man and the Nation; the masterpiece of four master authors, Hon. James G. Blaine, Prof. John Clark Ridpath, J. W. Buel and Hon. Benjamin Butterworth; illustrated by artists both European and American, including gems of pen and pencil, the most magnificent creations of the world's best artists, colored plates and rare photographs. This work is sold by subscription, and will be shown to our citizens by Mr. Tuckfield, who has taken the agency.

Her Last Trip This Season.

The N. P. steamship Loo Sok is due at the outer wharf at 4 this afternoon from the Sound. She will leave for Japan and China two hours later. She has a fair freight and 40 Chinese passengers from the Sound, and will take about 20 Chinese from here. This is the last trip this year that the Loo Sok will make, as she is not large or strong enough for the winter service.

Mock Parliament.

The first meeting of the Parliamentary Debating club for the season will be held on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of the old members is requested.

Reception to Delegates.

Seghers Council, Y. M. I., gave a reception last night to Father Van Nevel and Mr. F. Lang, delegates from Victoria to the Y. M. I. convention. The reception took place at the Bishop's Palace.

Salmon for Shipment East.

The steamer R. P. Rithet will this afternoon bring in several car loads of salmon for shipment on the City of Kingston to-morrow night. The salmon will go east over the Northern Pacific Railway.

The Last Witness Heard.

Capt. Gaudin will return from the Fraser this evening, and a decision from him in the Pope drowning case may be expected on Monday or Tuesday. It is understood that the evidence of the last witness has been heard.

Business Men for Aldermen.

A movement is on foot to form a Ratepayers' Association, or a Progressive Business Men's Club, for the purpose of nominating and electing business men to the City Council. A meeting will possibly be held next week.

Presentation and Address.

A stray owl found its way into the fire hall at the city hall last night. The "boys" caught it and quickly preparing a suitable address made a presentation to Chief Deasy. The emblem of wisdom is now blinking in a cage in the chief's office.

For the Orient.

The Empress of India will depart for the Orient to-morrow afternoon. She will be down from Vancouver at the usual hour providing there are no delays, and the tender will leave the outer wharf. A large number of passengers will take the steamer here this trip.

Going to India.

The Empress of India to-morrow will carry away as passengers the first two girl missionaries from the northwest to India. They are Miss Susie Harrington, the daughter of a former minister of Seattle, and Miss Perrin, of Portland, Ore., who have given themselves as missionaries to the Singapore station. Miss Harrington's father and mother will accompany them to Vancouver. The your ladies were given a farewell entertainment at Seattle.

From the North.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz arrived from northern ports this morning. She brought down the following passengers: Mrs. Noel and family, C. Clough, D. Sutherland, F. J. Spencer, D. McGill and wife, S. Bowier, 10 Indians, five Chinamen and two Japs. Her cargo consisted of 1100 cases of McLellan's salmon, 1145 cases from Lowe Inlet and 328 cases from the B.A. P. Company. The steamer Caledonia, reported on a sand bar up the Skeena, had not arrived at Essington when the Boscowitz left.

Well-Known Railroaders.

A distinguished party of railroad men will come down to Victoria from Vancouver to-morrow on the Empress and will probably remain a few days. It includes Robert Kerr, general freight and passenger agent of the C.P.R., with headquarters at Winnipeg, Archer Baker, general European agent of the C.P.R., Manager Ennis, of the Liverpool agency of the Allan line, and William Brown, traveling freight and passenger agent of the C.P.R. Agent Cameron has been advised of their coming and will meet them at the Empress to-morrow.

Hostilities Cease To-day.

To-day offers the last opportunity of the angler to catch trout, for the season will be one of the by-gones at midnight to-night. All the really enthusiastic anglers are out of town to-day taking the last visit of the season to the lakes and streams where the much-sought but seldom caught fish abound. A large number of Waltonians are at Shawnigan Lake. The camp fire and warming bowl—or rather bottle—must be more attractive to-day than the rod and bait and the prospect of fish, for it is piping cold on the water to-day. The angler who can wade in the stream to-day should be sent to find the North Pole.

To Build a Steamer.

Mr. Bergoff, one of the gentlemen interested in the scheme to take fresh British Columbia salmon to the European countries, is at present in the city. He is arranging to have a small steamer built, to bring the salmon down from the Skeena. The steamer is to be between 55 and 70 feet in length and is to be propelled at the rate of 12 miles an hour by a 17 horsepower gasoline engine. She is to carry between 35 and 50 tons dead weight. Mr. Bergoff is confident that the scheme will be successful. The salmon will be kept in refrigerators from the time it is taken from the water until it is delivered to the consumer.

Experiences of the Bear.

A private letter received at Port Townsend from one of the officers says the United States steamer Bear arrived at Unalaska from her Siberian trip on September 20. She brought 180 reindeer and landed them at Port Clarence. The Bear entered the Arctic Ocean in August and found it more clear of ice than on previous visits. The writer says: "In fact, we found more ice in Behring Sea in June than we often have in the Arctic. We broke our propellor blade with it, but as we carry a spare one that did not bother much. We landed stores at Point Barrow refuge station, and on the way back picked up a lot of stray miners." The Bear expects to remain north until December 1.

DIED OF HEART FAILURE.

The Reason Why Richard Barnett Expired in the Street.

Richard Barnett died of heart failure. That was the sworn statement before the coroner's jury of Dr. Watt, jr., who held a post mortem examination on the body of deceased. The liver and lungs showed that Barnett had been a heavy drinker.

Jas. McEachren met Barnett the night of his death. Barnett complained that he could not sleep and was taking a constitutional to make himself tired.

Peter Hand told the story of the finding of Barnett in a gutter on Johnson street, Friday evening. Barnett was lying on his knees, arms folded and head touching the sidewalk. His forehead was cold. He appeared dead. The police were called and Barnett was carried to his cabin on Johnson street. John McLeod, who had known the deceased for twelve years, told a similar story.

Sergt. Levin also gave evidence. The jury returned a verdict of death from heart failure.

REGULATIONS RELAXED.

Local Freight and Tug Boats Need not Call at Port Townsend.

The following letter was received by Collector Wasson at Port Townsend:—

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 5.

Collector of Customs, Port Townsend:

SIR—Referring to the letter of the 28th ult. and the telegram on the 23rd of July last, addressed to you from this department, I have to state that the department is advised that there are numerous craft engaged exclusively in carrying freight of various kinds, such as stone, lime, machinery, etc., between ports in British Columbia and Ports on Puget Sound, in the United States; that they do not carry passengers or mails, and that to require them to go to Port Townsend to enter when destined to some sub-port in its immediated vicinity, imposes somewhat of a hardship, is an impediment to trade and not necessary. The department is also advised that American tugs might properly be admitted to entry from Canadian ports, at sub-ports, without a health officer's certificate. It is represented that the tugs come and go at all hours of the night, and that there would be no hazard in allowing them to enter according to the custom in vogue prior to the epidemic at Victoria, without proceeding to your port. An exception, therefore, is recommended by the supervising surgeon-general of the marine hospital service, in favor of the vessels mentioned, and it is hereby directed that they be admitted to entry in your district according to the usual course of proceedure, on the certificate of the local health officer, unless there shall be an outbreak of some epidemic disease in the British provinces, in which case the department should be advised by telegraph, without delay. You will please so notify the customs officers in your district. Respectfully yours,

J. L. SPAULDING,
Acting Secretary.

Wants a Retaining Wall.

Ald. Styles wants the Dominion Government to build a retaining wall on Dallas road to prevent the sea from encroaching on the road. At the next meeting of the council he will bring the matter up by moving that a communication be addressed to the city representatives in the Dominion Parliament asking them to draw the attention of the government to the dangerous encroachment of the sea on the foreshore of Dallas road, between Oswego and Boyd streets, and also the urgent and absolute necessity of at once constructing a retaining wall to prevent further encroachment, which is fast becoming a dangerous impediment to traffic on the said road.

Here on Important Business.

Mayor Townsend, of Westminster, president of the Commonwealth Co., Reeve N. C. Schou and Robt. Todd, directors, are in town. These gentlemen interviewed the Government this morning. It is rumored that they have a scheme to make the Commonwealth a provincial government immigration organ and the official organ of the provincial Department of Agriculture. It is understood that Minister Baker accorded the delegates a very kind reception and that the interview was satisfactory.

Texada Mines Bonded.

The Texada Gold and Silver Mining Company, who hold four mining claims and acreage property on Texada Island, have given a "bonded lease" to American capitalists. If the negotiations are consummated a strong American company will be formed to test the value of the quartz ledges. The Texada company comprise the following parties: Dr. Praeger, A. Raper, T. D. Jones, E. Priest, W. E. Webb, T. Morgan, D. Jones and J. W. Stirtan. The amount of money involved in the deal, it is reported, will be between a quarter and half a million.

For Faithful Work.

To-morrow morning at 10 in Temple Emanu-El a meeting will be held of all the children connected with Emanu-El Sabbath School, their parents and friends. The object of the meeting is the very pleasing one of making suitable acknowledgment to the two faithful and efficient teachers in the Sabbath School, Miss L. Sylvester and Miss Pauline Franck, for their noble devotion to duty and their kind and patient teaching. A suitable presentation and address will be made.

Real Estate Sale.

On Tuesday next, at noon, Mr. Joshua Davies will sell by auction Block A of Section XXII., Victoria district. The property is part of the McNeill estate, and is subdivided into 14 lots containing one acre and upwards. At the same time he will sell Block F of Section XXII., subdivided into 32 lots containing one acre and upwards. The property is situated in one of the best parts of Victoria, being within easy reach of the water and the city.

Not Yet Found.

George Reilly, who went out in a boat last Tuesday morning has not yet been heard from, although his brother and friends have kept up a continual search, for some clue to his whereabouts. Reilly was a member of the Y.M.I and his brother members went out to-day to assist in the search. Chas. Reilly, brother of the missing man, thinks he might possibly be on Discovery or Trial Islands.

Society Notes.

When the officers of Sullivan Lodge, A.O.U.W., promised a pleasant evening to those who attended the social held last evening, they meant it. The visitors were given a very cordial welcome, and were entertained by a good musical programme. Grand Master Leiser spoke briefly on the growth of the order in British Columbia, and the benefits to be derived. Rev. Dr. Campbell also spoke. Alderman Bragg occupied the chair.

At the regular meeting of Pride of the West Lodge, C.O.O.F. (M.U.), held last evening, the following officers were installed by Bro. Tagg, N.G. of Dauntless, P.D.D.G.M. of Paisley district, Scotland:—N.G., Bro. A. W. Semple; V.G., Bro. A. Kay; P.N.G., Bro. A. B. Lake; Secretary, Bro. R. H. Carter; Treasurer, Bro. S. FAREWELL TO EUROPE.

Dr. Talmage Reviews His Extraordinary Campaign of Preaching in Great Britain.

Presented With a Gold Watch—The Work of the Spider as an Illustration.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The closing week of Rev. Dr. Talmage's preaching tour was marked by several gatherings which in magnitude and enthusiasm eclipsed all that had preceded them. The last service in London was on Sept. 3, when, after addressing three great meetings during the daytime, he spoke to an immense multitude in Hyde park in the evening. Some estimates place the number at 30,000. The crowd was so dense that many women fainted and had to be removed. During the service the auditors were raised to the highest pitch of religious fervor, and scenes were enacted such as have not been witnessed since the days of Whitefield. On the following Wednesday evening Dr. Talmage addressed a great audience at the Crystal palace, Sydenham, the largest building in the suburbs of London. Prayer meetings invoking the divine blessing on the services were held in various churches the preceding Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Before the sermon Dr. Talmage was entertained at a banquet in the large banqueting hall of the Crystal palace by 100 distinguished clergymen and laymen of every denomination and from every continent, even including Australia. A vote of thanks was moved rehearsing Dr. Talmage's eminent services to God and humanity; also that he had traveled over 12,000 miles and preached in every prominent city in Great Britain to hundreds of thousands of eager auditors, collected vast sums for various English benevolences, and throughout the entire tour paid his own expenses, not retaining one farthing. Rev. Dr. Thain Davidson seconded the motion and declared that Dr. Talmage commanded the admiration of the entire Christian world for faithfully preaching the orthodox Gospel in times of fierce religious dissension. The motion was unanimously carried amid great applause.

Dr. Talmage was then presented in behalf of his English admirers with a beautiful and costly gold watch of unique design, inscribed "Presented to Rev. Dr. Talmage at Crystal palace, London, in commemoration of his preaching tour through England in the summer of 1892." Dr. Talmage was then escorted to the great hall, where the vote of thanks was unanimously indorsed and ratified by the entire audience.

He then preached his farewell sermon and shook hands with hundreds at the close. This was the second sermon ever preached in the Crystal palace, the first having been delivered by Pastor Spurgeon thirty-five years ago on the Crimean war. The text selected for today is from Proverbs xxx, 28, "The spider taketh hold with her hands and is in kings' palaces."

Permitted as I was a few days ago to attend the meeting of the British Scientific association at Edinburgh, I found that no paper read had excited more interest than that by Rev. Dr. McCook, of America, on the subject of spiders. It seems that my talented countryman, banished from his pulpit for a short time by ill health, had in the fields and forests given himself to the study of insects. And surely if it is not beneath the dignity of God to make spiders it is not beneath the dignity of man to study them.

THE UNUSUAL ATTRACTS.

We are all watching for phenomena. A sky full of stars shining from January to January calls out not so many remarks as the blazing of one meteor. A whole flock of robins take not so much of our attention as one blundering bat darting into the window on a summer eve. Things of ordinary sound and sight and occurrence fail to reach us, and yet no grasshopper ever springs up in our path, no moth ever dashes into the evening candle, no mote ever floats in the sunbeam that pours through the crack in the window shutter, no barnacle on ship's hull, no burr on a chestnut, no limpet clinging to a rock, no rind of an artichoke but would teach us a lesson if we were not so stupid. God in his Bible sets forth for our consideration the lily, and the snowflake, and the locust, and the stork's nest, and the hind's foot, and the aurora borealis, and the ant hills.

One of the sacred writers sitting amid the mountains sees a hind skipping over the rocks. The hind has such a peculiarly shaped foot that it can go over the steepest places without falling, and as the prophet looks upon that marking of the hind's foot on the rocks and thinks of the divine care over him he says, "Thou makest my feet like hinds' feet that I may walk on high places." And another sacred writer sees the ostrich leaving its eggs in the sand of the desert, and without any care of incubation walk off, and the Scripture says that is like some parents, leaving their children without any wing of protection or care.

In my text inspiration opens before us the gate of a palace, and we are inducted amid the pomp of the throne and the courtier, and while we are looking around upon the magnificence inspiration points us to a spider plying its shuttle and weaving its net on the wall. It does not call us to regard the grand surroundings of the palace, but to a solemn and earnest consideration of the fact that "The spider taketh hold with her hands and is in kings' palaces."

It is not very certain what was the particular species of insect spoken of in the text, but I shall proceed to learn from it the exquisiteness of the divine mechanism. The king's chamberlain comes into the palace and looks around and sees the spider on the wall and says, "Away with that intruder," and the servant of Solomon's palace comes with his broom and dashes down the insect, saying, "What a loathsome thing it is." But under microscopic inspection I find it more wondrous of construction than the embroideries on the palace wall and the upholstery about the windows. All the machinery of the earth could not make anything so delicate and beautiful as the prehensile with which that spider clutches its prey, or as any of its eight eyes.

We do not have to go so far up to see the power of God in the tapestry hanging around the windows of heaven, or in the horses or chariots of fire with which the dying day departs, or to look at the mountain swinging out its sword arm from under the mantle of darkness until it can strike with its scimeter of the lightning. I love better to study God in the shape of a fly's wing, in the formation of a fish's scale, in the snowy whiteness of a pond lily. I love to track his footsteps in the mountain moss, and to hear his voice in the hum of the rye fields, and discover the rustle of his robe of light in the south wind.

Oh, this wonder of divine power that can build a habitation for God in an apple blossom, and tune a bee's voice until it is fit for the eternal orchestra, and can say to a firefly, "Let there be light;" and from holding an ocean in the hollow of his hand goes forth to find heights and depths and length and breadth of omnipotency in a dewdrop, and dismounts from the chariot of midnight hurricane to cross over on the suspension bridge of a spider's web. You may take your telescope and sweep it across the heavens in order to behold the glory of God; but I shall take the leaf holding the spider, and the spider's web, and I shall bring the microscope to my eye, and while I gaze and look and study and am confounded, I will kneel down in the grass and cry, "Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty!"

NONE ARE TOO WEAK.

Again, my text teaches me that insignificance is no excuse for inaction. This spider that Solomon saw on the wall might have said: "I can't weave a web worthy of this great palace; what can I do amid all this gold embroidery? I am not able to make anything fit for so grand a place, and so I will not work my spinning jenny." Not so said the spider. "The spider taketh hold with her hands." Oh, what a lesson that is for you and me! You say if you had some great sermon to preach, if you only had a great audience to talk to, if you had a great army to marshal, if you only had a constitution to write, if there was some tremendous thing in the world for you to do—then you would show us. Yes, you would show us!

What if the Levite in the ancient temple had refused to snuff the candle because he could not be a high priest? What if the humming bird should refuse to sing its song into the ear of the honeysuckle because it cannot, like the eagle, dash its wing into the sun? What if the raindrop should refuse to descend because it is not a Niagara? What if the spider of the text should refuse to move its shuttle because it cannot weave a Solomon's robe? Away with such folly! If you are lazy with the one talent you would be lazy with the ten talents. If Milo cannot lift the calf he never will have strength to lift the ox. In the Lord's army there is order for promotion, but you cannot be a general until you have been a captain, a lieutenant and a colonel. It is step by step, it is inch by inch, it is stroke by stroke that our Christian character is builded. Therefore be content to do what God commands you to do.

God is not ashamed to do small things. He is not ashamed to be found chiseling a grain of sand, or helping a honeybee to construct its cell with mathematical accuracy, or tingeing a shell in the surf, or shaping the bill of a chaffinch. What God does he does well. What you do, do well, be it a great work or a small work. If ten talents, employ all the ten. If five talents employ all the five. If one talent, employ the one. If only the thousandth part of a talent, employ that. "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give theo the crown of life." I tell you if you are not faithful to God in a small sphere you would be indolent and insignificant in a large sphere.

Again, my text teaches me that repulsiveness and loathsomeness will sometimes climb up into very elevated places. You would have tried to have killed the spider that Solomon saw. You would have said: "This is no place for it. If that spider is determined to weave a web, let it do so down in the cellar of this palace or in some dark dungeon." Ah! the spider of the text could not be discouraged. It clambered on, and climbed up, higher and higher and higher, until after awhile it reached the king's visiou, and he said, "The spider taketh hold with her hands and is in kings' palaces." And so it often is now that things that are loathsome and repulsive get up into very elevated places.

The church of Christ, for instance, is a palace. The King of heaven and earth lives in it. According to the Bible her beams are of cedar, and her rafters of fir, and her windows of agate, and the fountains of salvation dash a rain of light. It is a glorious palace—the church of God is; and yet sometimes unseemly and loathsome things creep up into it—evil speaking and rancor and slander and backbiting and abuse, crawling up on the walls of the church, spinning a web from arch to arch, and from the top of one communion tankard to the top of another communion tankard. Glorious palace in which there ought only to be light and love and pardon and grace; yet a spider in the palace!

THE CHRISTIAN HOME.

Home ought to be a castle. It ought to be the residence of everything royal. Kindness, love, peace, patience and forbearance ought to be the princes residing there; and yet sometimes dissipation crawls up into that home and the jealous eye comes up, and the scene of peace and plenty becomes the scene of domestic jargon and dissonance. You say, "What is the matter with the home?" I will tell you what is the matter with it. A spider in the palace.

A well developed Christian character is a grand thing to look at. You see some man with great intellectual and spiritual proportions. You say: "How useful that man must be!" But you find, amid all his splendor of faculties, there is some prejudice, some whim, some evil habit that a great many people do not notice, but that you have happened to notice, and it is gradually spoiling that man's character—it is gradually going to injure his entire influence. Others may not see it, but you are anxious in regard to his welfare, and now you discover it. A dead fly in the ointment. A spider in the palace.

Again, my text teaches me that perseverance will mount into the king's palace. It must have seemed a long distance for that spider to climb in Solomon's splendid residence, but it started at the very foot of the wall and went up over the panels of Lebanon cedar, higher and higher, until it stood higher than the highest throne in all the nations—the throne of Solomon. And so God has decreed it that many of those who are down in the dust of sin and dishonor shall gradually attain to the King's palace. We see it in worldly things.

Who is that banker in Philadelphia? Why, he used to be the boy that held the horses of Stephen Girard while the millionaire went in to collect his dividends. Arkwright toils on up from a barber's shop until he gets into the palace of invention. Sextus V toils on up from the office of a swineherd until he gets into the palace of Rome. Fletcher toils on up from the most insignificant family position until he gets into the palace of Christian eloquence. Hogarth, engraving pewter pots for a living, toils on up until he reaches the palace of world renowned art.

And God hath decided that though you may be weak of arm and slow of tongue, and be struck through with a great many mental and moral deficits, by his almighty grace you shall yet arrive in the King's palace—not such a one as is spoken of in the text, not one of marble, not one adorned with pillars of alabaster and thrones of ivory and flagons of burnished gold, but a palace in which God is the King and the angels of heaven are the cupbearers.

The spider crawling up the wall of Solomon's palace was not worth looking after or considering as compared with the fact that we, who are worms of the dust, may at last ascend into the palace of the King Immortal. By the grace of God may we all reach it. Oh, heaven is not a dull place! It is not a worn out mansion, with faded curtains and outlandish chairs and cracked ware. No; it is as fresh and fair and beautiful as though it were completed but yesterday. The kings of the earth shall bring their honor and glory into it.

THE MATERIAL HEAVEN.

A palace means splendor of apartments. Now, I do not know where heaven is, and I do not know how it looks, but if our bodies are to be resurrected in the last day I think heaven must have a material splendor as well as spiritual grandeur. Oh, what grandeur of apartments when that divine hand which plunges the sea into blue, and the foliage into green, and sets the sunset on fire shall gather all the beautiful colors of earth around his throne, and when that arm which lifted the pillars of Alpine rock and bent the arch of the sky shall raise before our soul the eternal architecture, and that hand which hung with loops of fire the curtains of morning shall prepare the upholstery of our kingly residence!

A palace also means splendor of associations. The poor man, the outcast cannot get into Windsor castle. The sentinel of the queen stands there and cries "Halt!" as he tries to enter. But in the palace of which I speak we may all become residents, and we shall all be princes and kings. We may have been beggars, we may have been outcasts, we may have been wandering and lost as we all have been, but there we shall take our regal power. What companionship in heaven! To walk side by side with John and James and Peter and Paul and Moses and Joshua and Caleb and Ezekiel and Jeremiah and Micah and Zechariah and Wilberforce and Oliver Cromwell and Philip Doddridge and Edward Payson and John Milton and Elizabeth Fry and Hannah More and Charlotte Elizabeth, and all the other kings and queens of heaven. Oh, my soul, what a companionship!

A palace means splendor of banquet. There will be no common ware on that table. There will be no unskilled musicians at that entertainment. There will be no scanty supply of fruit or beverage. There have been banquets spread that cost a million of dollars each, but who can tell the untold wealth of that banquet? I do not know whether John's description of it is literal or figurative. A great many wise people tell me it is figurative; but prove it! I do not know but that it may be literal. I do not know but that there may be real fruits plucked from the tree of life.

I do not know but that Christ referred to the real juice of the grape when he said that we should drink new wine in our Father's kingdom, but not the intoxicating stuff of this world's brewing. I do not say it is so, but I have as much right for thinking it is so as you have for thinking the other way. At any rate, it will be a glorious banquet. Hark! the chariots rumbling in the distance. I really believe the guests are coming now. The gates swing open, the guests dismount, the palace is filling, and all the chalices, flashing with pearl and amethyst and carbuncle, are lifted to the lips of the myriad banqueters, while standing in robes of snowy white they drink to the honor of the glorious King.

"Oh," you say, "that is too grand a place for you and for me." No, it is not. If a spider, according to the text, could crawl up on the wall of Solomon's palace, shall not our poor souls, through the blood of Christ, mount up from the depths of their sin and shame and finally reach the palace of the eternal King? "Where sin abounded, grace shall much more abound, that whereas sin reigned unto death, even so may grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord." One flash of that coming glory obliterates the sepulcher.

IN THE MAMMOTH CAVE.

Years ago, with lanterns and torches and a guide, we went down in the Mammoth cave of Kentucky. You may walk fourteen miles and see no sunlight. It is a stupendous place. Some places the roof of the cave a hundred feet high. The grottoes filled with weird echoes; cascades falling from invisible height to invisible depth. Stalagmites rising up from the floor of the cave; stalactites descending from the roof of the cave, joining each other and making pillars of the Almighty's sculpturing. There are rosettes of amethyst in halls of gypsum. As the guide carries his lantern ahead of you the shadows have an appearance supernatural and spectral. The darkness is fearful.

Two people, getting lost from their guide only for a few hours, years ago, were demented, and for years sat in their insanity. You feel like holding your breath as you walk across the bridges that seem to span the bottomless abyss. The guide throws his calcium light down into the caverns, and the light rolls and tosses from rock to rock and from depth to depth, making at every plunge a new revelation of the awful power that could have made such a place as that. A sense of suffocation comes upon you as you think that you are two hundred and fifty feet in a straight line from the sunlit surface of the earth.

The guide after awhile takes you into what is called the "star chamber;" and then he says to you, "Sit here;" and then he takes the lantern and goes down under the rocks, and it gets darker and darker until the night is so thick that the hand an inch from the eye is unobservable. And then, by kindling one of the lanterns and placing it in a cleft of the rock, there is a reflection cast on the dome of the cave, and there are stars coming out in constellations—a brilliant night heavens—and you involuntary exclaim, "Beautiful! beautiful."

Then he takes the lantern down in other depths of the cavern and wanders on and wanders off until he comes up from behind the rocks gradually, and it seems like the dawn of the morning and it gets brighter and brighter. The guide is a skilled ventriloquist, and he imitates the voices of the morning, and soon the gloom is all gone, and you stand congratulating yourself over the wonderful spectacle.

Well, there are a great many people who look down into the grave as a great cavern. They think it is a thousand miles subterraneous, and all the echoes seem to be the voices of despair, and the cascades seem to be the falling tears that always fall, and the gloom of earth seems coming up in stalagmite, and the gloom of the eternal world seems descending in the stalactite, making pillars of indescribable horror. The grave is no such place as that to me, thank God! Our divine Guide takes us down into the great cavern, and we have the lamp to our feet, and the light to our path, and all the echoes in the rifts of the rock are anthems, and all the falling waters are fountains of salvation, and after awhile we look up, and behold! the cavern of the tomb has become a King's star chamber.

And while we are looking at the pomp of it an everlasting morning begins to rise, and all the tears of the earth crystalize into stalagmite, rising up in a pillar on the one side, and all the glories of heaven seem to be descending in a stalactite, making a pillar on the other side, and you push against the gate that swings between the two pillars, and as that gate flashes open you find it is one of the twelve gates which are twelve pearls. Blessed be God that through this Gospel the mammoth cave of the sepulcher has become the illumined star chamber of the King! Oh, the palaces! the eternal palaces! the King's palaces!

CITY POLICE COURT.

Numerous and Varied are the Cases Heard this Morning.

Sam Chung left cordwood on Douglas street from Tuesday last. He was fined $5 and costs.

Are You "In the Swim?"

It is said: "You may as well be out of the world as out of the fashion."

In the West End of London, Eng., the fashionable quarter, it is not now considered "the proper thing" to wear RUBBER waterproofs.

Among the "smart" set it is looked upon as "bad form," and as much out of place for a man to wear a RUBBER waterproof as for a woman to wear a bustle.

When a new article suddenly springs into favor and is almost universally adopted, you may be sure it must possess extraordinary merit. "MELISSA" COATS seem to meet every requirement of Health, Comfort and Fashion, and gratify every taste. They are produced in an infinite variety of textures, patterns and styles. To any intelligent person the mere mention of the many advantages of "MELISSA" RAINPROOF garments over the old Rubber article is sufficient.

CONFERENCE OF BAPTISTS.

Another Profitable Day Spent by the Assembled Baptists at New Westminster.

A Powerful Exposition of Scripture —Election of the Ensuing Year's Officers.

On Thursday morning at 10:30 the Baptists again crowded into the Olivet Baptist church. Delegates were reported from the churches of Aberdeen, LaConner, Custer, Ferndale, Victoria, two; Vancouver, two; Mount Vernon, Seattle, three; New Whatcom, New Westminster, Vashon Island, Snohomish, Everett, Fremont, Centralia, Fernhill, Olympia, Puyallup, Tacoma, Vancouver (Wash.), Port Angeles, and the Swedish churches of Seattle and New Whatcom. New pastors of churches were then introduced as follows: Rev. A. B. Backs to Everett, D. G. Pierce to Snohomish, C. F. Brownlee to New Whatcom, R. H McEwen to Emmanuel, Victoria; A. Johnson, Whatcom; J. Woodley, Fernhill; M. I. Rugg, North Seattle; W. F. Harper, Tacoma; M. U. Squire, Port Angeles; Wm. P. Squires, Mount Vernon; W. E. Pritchard, Olympia; W. H. Sherman, Temple church, Olympia. Each of the pastors responded to the introduction.

Rev. J. Best, on behalf of the New Westminster church, gave a hearty welcome to the convention. He mentioned that the Olivet church, of which he was the pastor, was a child of, and the oldest church in the convention. Less than eight years ago, there were four members that called a pastor, pledging $250 towards his salary and the convention contributed $750 more. That aid had been discontinued for five years, and the little church of four members had grown to a body of 260 members. Westminster people were loyal to the British flag, and were averse to annexation, yet when their neighbors of the United States had settled a few domestic questions, British Columbia would be ready to help them and to take them under their protecting wing.

Rev. J. Cairns, pastor of Vancouver, Washington, happily responded, thanking the New Westminster people for their hospitable welcome. He humorously said that whilst he had nothing but warm admiration for Queen Victoria, yet he believed he should be the last American to be nationalized under the English flag when annexation came.

Rev. Roland Grant, pastor of First Baptist church, Portland, delivered the annual sermon. He chose for his text, Mark 13-32: "Of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son." Our blessed Lord uttered many words of encouragement, as well as of warning, to his disciples. A spirit of curiosity had pervaded their minds and they had endeavored to fix time and place for their Master's re-appearing, after he should have left this earth. He himself had stirred their desire and spirit of enquiry by the many signs and symbols He had given, and the marks and finger posts shown by which they might recognize his return. There were two classes of students of this portion of revealed truth. The one class was hopeful, certain and positive, a radical class of student. They could place facts and figures so accurately that if subsequent events failed to agree with their interpretations, they were apt to be disappointed. The other class were more cowardly, and merely accepted the surface meaning of the text, that none could know or would know the day or the hour of the Lord's coming. The preacher urged that the truth lay between the two; that to those who devoutly sought light and leading the Scriptures became their own interpreters, and that there was a deeper meaning in the text if men would but seek for it. The text must be read with the thought of the condescension of Christ. His first coming to this earth was not so much a question of distance as it was of condition. It was from Un-time to a Time condition. He came from a condition we could but dimly comprehend to a condition like our own. He touched ground like our own, lived our life, was touched with the feeling of our infirmities, bone of our bone, flesh of our flesh. Incidentally he denounced Unitarianism as subversive of the Divinity and life work of Jesus Christ, whilst admitting to the full the glorious humanity and full-sided life of Jesus on earth. The scroll of futurity was in the Father's hands and the Father would reveal and was revealing it if students read the Bible aright. The preacher quoted numbers of passages to prove that the text was applicable to our Lord only in his time of life. Jesus Christ was at that time not ignored but non-knowing. Immediately after his resurrection, he began revealing the greater knowledge for his disciples, and as the dispensation of the spirit became known, so step by step, by Luke in the Acts of the Apostles, Paul in his epistles and John in the Apocalypse, so the clearer light concerning our Lord's coming became better known. Therefore we do not perhaps know the day or hour our Lord shall come for several reasons. I. Because of our stupidity. II. Because of the church's want of spirituality. If Christians were always watching and waiting for their Lord's coming, they would be better able to discern the signs of the time. III. Because we do not see, as we should, the Prospectives of Prophecy. Sceptics sometimes claim that this or that particular prophecy has not been fulfilled, but they have not fully seen the completion of the work. Prophecy is not always given to predict what will happen to-morrow, as it was to be a perpetual credential of Christian faith. The Christian experience was in itself the best proof of prophetical accuracy. Therefore, the attitude of the Church should be to watch for the coming of our Lord—not merely to be ready, but to be anxiously expecting His appearing. If the world sees Christians in the attitude of watching, they also, with ear attentive and expectant eye, will be watching His coming.

The afternoon meeting was presided over by Professor Trimble. After a long service the convention proceeded to the election of officers, when the following were elected:—President, Rev. G. J. Burchett; 1st vice-president, Rev. W. F. Harper; 2nd vice-president, Mr. W. Marchant; corresponding secretary, Rev. D. D. Proper; recording secretary, Rev. S. W. Beaven; treasurer, Deacon C. A. Cavender; historical secretary, Rev. D. J. Pierce; home mission board, Rev. A. J. Banks; E. T. Trimble, L. D. Goodwin, Messrs. R. Knife, A. Hull, G. A. Hill, J. R. Francis. Rev. D. D. Proper then offered the annual report of the home mission board. The report showed that an average of 25 missionaries had been working upon the whole of the field. Forty-two churches had received their ministrations, the total additions to the mission stations being 565, with an enrolled attendance of 2644 children in the Sunday schools. The amount paid for salaries by churches is $9517.50, besides contributing $17,748.50 for other purposes. For mission purposes the churches in the convention contributed $2848.15, being about $260 less than last year. The Home Mission Society of New York added to this amount $7700, making a total of $10,548.15 for use in Western Washington and British Columbia. Besides this the parent society had promised $800 more for the support of a district missionary, who should travel up and down the district to minister to pastorless churches and for general revival work in the district; $200 was also given towards the Chinese work in Seattle and $200 for the Chinese work in Port Townsend, besides liberal grants to needy churches from the church edifice fund. The report mentioned with grateful appreciation the help of the women's societies, these societies contributing $478 to the work. Miss Emma Miller, missionary among the women, has been removed to California, Miss Fannie Allen taking her place in Washington and B. C. Eight new places of worship have been built or are now being built, during the past year at Ridgeway, Puyallup, Olympia, Tacoma, Mount Pleasant, Vancouver, Fern Hill, Ferndale, Nanarine, and one being started at Spring Ridge, Victoria. The report concluded by referring to the hindrances to the work in the constant removal of pastors and the financial depression of the coast generally, and showed that the demands of the present time required fidelity, earnestness and thorough consecration. Sometimes by looking backward over the progress made they could obtain inspiration. Nine years ago there were 300 Baptists on the field, with six houses of worship, valued at $12,900. Now they have nearly 3500 members, with 40 church buildings, valued at $200,000. British Columbia had two churches with 27 members; now there were six churches and 814 members. The past called for a glorious future, and if the churches arose in their might, thoroughly consecrated and true, the money will come, the land be occupied, God be honored and the kingdom of Christ be extended.

Rev. W. E. Pritchard gave an address on "The plan of state missions among missionary enterprises;" Miss Malenberg on "The Scandinavian mission work;" Rev. T. Baldwin on "What we owe to coming generations on this Northwest coast;" and Prof. Trowble gave an excellent bird's-eye view of the whole of the field, showing the great needs of many of the churches and districts in the south of Washington. The evening service was preceded by a praise service, presided over by Rev. J. Cairns. Miss Malenberg, Mrs. Cairns, Judge Greene and Prof. Trimble. Rev. L. D. Goodwin offered prayer.

Rev. M. L. Rugg, late of Victoria, delivered an address on "Immigration, its dangers and duties." He spoke of the large numbers that visited the American continent, that in the United States 35 per cent. were of foreign extraction, and that this large and continual increase in the population would soon reach the Canadian territory. In days past the immigrants were of the highest order, enterprising, intelligent and religious, but the cream of the population had already come and the lower strata of society were now mainly arriving. This brought many difficulties. Foreigners brought foreign habits, secularizing the Sabbath, selling their electoral power, intemperance, ignorance and sloth. In 1891, out of 80,000 bar-keepers in the United States 72,000 were foreign born. The Church of Rome, too, had sought to control the public policy of the United States, and as many of the Church of Rome's adherents came from foreign shores, from Italy, Spain and Ireland, so they brought loose ideas of loyalty to the nation in which they lived. The duty of Baptists toward immigration should be to preach and teach the religion of Jesus Christ. Having received the gospel, so we need to preach it to others. The Gospel says "Come;" it also says "Go." "Fight the devil with fire" is an old saying, but it is true. Weakness, shame and national crime would disappear, and the Christian statesman standing upon the lofty peak of Christian patriotism would see the immigration valleys level up to the higher standard of a purified national life.

The choir rendered with great taste an anthem entitled, "My Help cometh from the Lord."

Rev. L. W. Goodwin spoke on "Christianity and Civilization," and Rev. P. H. McEwen spoke on the financial work of the convention, how to obtain more money for the work of the Gospel.

Rev. A. B. Banks recounted the history of home mission work on the Northwest coast. The first desire for the evangelization of the Northwest arose in the tribes of Indians. A deputation of the Flathead Indians, four in number, from the Walla Walla valley, crossed the Rocky Mountains to St. Louis to ask for copies of the book that would tell them of the Good Spirit and happy hunting grounds. He traced the growth of missions in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia from the smallest beginnings to the present magnificent development.

Rev. Roland Grant delivered an earnest address on being fully consecrated to God's service. A collection was taken up in aid of the home mission work.

LACROSSE.

GOING SOUTH.

W. E. Ditchburn, who played in the defense for Victoria during the past season, left for California by this morning's boat. He expects to return to help Victoria during the season of 1893. Ditchburn is a good all-around player and Victoria cannot afford to lose him.

TO GIVE A BALL.

Yesterday evening the executive of the Victoria lacrosse club met to wind up the business of the season. A number of accounts were disposed of and it was decided to give a ball in the "near subsequently" with the double object of having a good time and also of providing the necessary to meet obligations incurred during the season. The following gentlemen were named a committee to carry out the arrangements for the ball: Dr. W. J. Quinlan, W.G. MacKenzie, Dr. Jones, A. C. Flumerfelt, J. S. Murray, J. Hyland, W. Dean, R. J. Frost, R. Eckhardt, W. Burne, W. H. Cullin and W. Smith.

The Jargon Language.

A London paper, mentioning a recent anarchist meeting, says that speeches were delivered in Yddish. This is a term employed to designate the queer mixture of Hebrew, German and other words that is called Jargon in New York. Jargon is so extensively spoken and read here that it is profitable to issue several newspapers in that language. The expression, "Our esteemed Jargon contemporary," is found occasionally in the Jewish papers of the higher class, and its use does not imply any disposition to speak slightingly.—New York Sun.

Making Hay with Binders.

Following is an account of a new use for the self-binder, and the plan looks practical. The Mineral Pointer, Mineral Point, Ohio, is authority for the statement. "Judge Davis this week tried the experiment of cutting hay with a reaper and a binder, which proved to be a big success. The bound sheaves cured rapidly in stock, and while a great deal of hard work was saved, the hay was of much better quality, retaining its bright green color with all the fragrant aroma usually lost by the old method of mowing and and bleaching in the sun. It is also free from the sand and dirt collected by raking over the ground. He harvested twenty-five acres of timothy in this manner, and says that his "new process" hay is worth to him at least $2 more per ton in quality and at least considerable less expense for harvesting."

A Novel Device.

During the last hot wave a man was seen walking down the most crowded street in a large city with a unique load. He had in his right hand a storage cell about the size of a hand valise, and in his left he carried a tripod on the head of which was fixed a fan motor. A flexible cord connected the motor with the battery cell, and the fan was spinning away at a rate that produced a lively breeze all around. There are few people, perhaps who are desperate or enthusiastic enough to carry their fan motor outfit with them in their peregrinations through a crowded city, but that the thing is possible has been demonstrated.—Chicago Herald.

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.

Pursuant to the Creditors Trusts Deeds Act, 1890

Notice is hereby given that Thomas Watson Carter and William Fraser Tolmie, carrying on business in the City of Victoria under the firm name of Carter and Tolmie, Brewers, have assigned all their real and personal property to John Joel Austin, of the said city of Victoria, Real Estate Agent, in trust for the purpose of paying and satisfying proportionately and without preference or priority the creditors of the said Carter and Tolmie. The said deed was executed by the said Assignors and Trustee on the fourteenth day of October, 1892, and the said Assignee has undertaken the trusts created by the said deed. All persons having claims against the said firm of Carter and Tolmie must forward and deliver full particulars of claim, duly verified, to the Assignee, at Victoria, on or before the fourteenth day of December, 1892. All persons indebted to the said firm of Carter and Tolmie are required to pay the amount due by them to the said Assignee forthwith. After the said fourteenth day of December, 1892, the Trustee will proceed to distribute the assets of the said estate among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have notice.
